

DIRECTIONS TO SONJA GABRIEL / FLYING HANDS BY CAR

1220 Wien, Komzakgasse 21 / Meißauergasse 21, staircase 2 or 3, 1. attic, Top 2413

Coming from the center (shown in red on the plan) you drive always straight out over the Reichsbrücke and on Wagramer Straße, up to the third traffic light after the „Donauzentrum“. There between two Freudensprung-shops you turn right into Meißauergasse and park there or take the first crossing left into Komzakgasse. At the corner you will already see the modern building in whose yellow, strangely shaped roof you can get a Lomi, a Sound Massage or Thai Yoga treatment.

Coming from Floridsdorf (shown in blue on the plan) you drive on Donaufelderstraße until Wagramerstraße, traverse it and drive along Kagraner Platz up to the first crossing street on the right (Eugen-Bormann-Gasse, swimming pools „Röder“ at the corner). There you turn off and at the end of the lane turn again right into Am Freihof and at the first left into Komzakgasse where you can park your car.

Coming from out of town from the North (Gerasdorf, Deutsch Wagram) (shown in green on the plan) you drive on the Wagramer Straße up to the first traffic light after the underground station „Kagraner Platz“ (on height of Donaufelderstraße) and there you turn right into Meißauergasse (left turn prohibition). But you turn around directly after the traffic light, traverse Wagramer Straße and park either directly on Meißauergasse or you drive still left into Komzakgasse.

Coming over the Südost-Tangente (shown in purple on the plan), you take the exit „Kagraner Platz“, turn left into Hirschstettner Straße, follow the road up to a branching, where you turn left into Kagraner Platz (which is actually a road and not a square) and drive it along until you turn left into Eugen Bormann-Gasse shortly before Wagramer Straße (swimming pools „Röder“ at the corner). At the end of the lane you turn right into Am Freihof and at the first left into Komzakgasse.

Parking and last steps: In all cases you park either in Meißauergasse (not too many parking lots) or in Komzakgasse (where it's easier) in proximity of the passage into the courtyard vis à vis Heckenweg. In „case of emergency“ you can also park your car Billa parking place at the corner Meißauergasse / Komzakgasse. If you enter the courtyard from the passage in Komzakgasse, you pass at two very small gardens at the left and ring the bell at staircase 3, top no. 2413 (on the lower intercom system at the right hand side, at about the middle). You take the elevator up to the 1 DG (first attic floor) and pass under the overhanging yellow roof to the right hand side until you reach the third door.

If you come from the corner Meißauergasse/Komzakgasse, you ring at staircase 2, top no. 2413, go up with the elevator to the 1 DG (first attic floor), turn left (to the yellow roof) and turn left again until to the tenth door. You do not need to count however - left and right of the small bridge to the apartment there are two signs: „Flying-Hands“ and „Lomi Lomi Nui, Klangmassage, Thai Yoga“. On the door there's a picture of a spiderweb with dewdrops as well as an „energy practitioner-sticker“ and above the door there's a horse shoe - here you are totally right.
